HERE TO STAY

FREEDOM OF MOVEMENT WORLD TOUR

Connecting the Migrant Movement!

What? We plan to travel through England, Spain, Italy, Uganda and South Sudan to meet refugees and migrant activists. We want to share our experiences at info panels, workshops and film screenings and build a movement across borders!

Who? We are from the self-organised Refugee Movement Berlin that started occupying Oranienplatz in central Berlin in 2012 to demand our rights. Even after the eviction we continue fighting. This is the second transnational refugee tour to make our voices heard!

Languages: We speak Arabic, English, German, and French.

Why? We believe in freedom of movement for everybody, meaning the right to choose where to go and where to stay whenever you want. With a transnational exchange of ideas we can fight deportation, stop detention, resist being held in refugee camps, end isolation from the communities and throw the fear away! Together we are strong!
